

Reconnecting Hearts

Dr. Richard Ross

August 19, 2018

FROM THE PASTOR

Parenting Weekend Guest Speaker 10:30 AM

Please give a warm welcome to Dr. Richard Ross as he joins us for our Parenting Weeked: Reconnecting Hearts. He is the Professor of Student Ministry and J.M. Price Chair of Religious Education at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Richard Ross is husband to LaJuana, who has joined him in a lifetime of loving teenagers. They are parents of Clayton. Currently he serves as a volunteer with teenagers and parents at Wedgewood Baptist in Fort Worth.

Richard Ross has served as professor of youth ministry in the Jack D. Terry School of Church and Family Ministries since 2000. His entire life has focused on seeing Christ glorified in the lives of teenagers and their parents and leaders. He served as a local-church youth minister for 30 years. Overlapping part of that time was 16 years of service as the youth ministry consultant at LifeWay Christian Resources.

Ross prepared for investment in the lives of teenagers through bachelor's, Master's, and PhD degrees. He has written over 20 books related to teenagers, youth leaders, and parents of teenagers. Some of his book titles include "Pure Hearts at Home", "Accelerate", and "Dad Edition: Parent Check Up". Each year he speaks and preaches in over 40 churches, conferences, and conventions.

God whispered the idea for the True Love Waits movement to Jimmy Hester and Richard Ross. The first promises of purity were made by members of Ross' youth group in 1993. Today the movement has been embraced by 100 denominations and national student organizations in the U.S. and by over 100 countries. Interest in the movement has led Ross to appear on such programs as The Today Show, Nightline, and CNN Headline News—and to be interviewed by The Washington Post, The Washington Times, the New York Times, USA Today, Newsweek, Time, Life, Seventeen, and several hundred other newspapers and magazines
