FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Church family,

Have you ever considered that simply inviting someone to church could be all it takes for Jesus to take hold of them and change their life? All you have to do is ask them to come! It seems too simple, doesn't it?

Consider this quote from Dr. Thomas Rainer in Ten Surprises About the Unchurched: “Ninety-six percent of the unchurched are at least somewhat likely to attend church if they are invited.

Perhaps we need to pause on this response. Perhaps we need to restate it. More than nine out of 10 of the unchurched said they would come to church if they were invited.”

Yet, for various reasons, we often hesitate to invite others to come to a church service. We allow fear of awkward conversations or rejection to stop us from inviting those close to us, as well as strangers, to a place where they can hear the good news and meet Jesus.

The Apostle Paul said : “For I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of God that brings salvation to everyone who believes: first to the Jew, then to the Gentile.” Romans 1:16

We are concluding the message series today on Intentional. My question for you is “What if you intentionally invited 5 people to attend our church this month?” It's really not that hard, and you will find that most people will be open to your invitation. It is only because we often allow the devil to create in us the spirit of fear that we don't take the initiative to invite people to church.

I can tell you that if you invite someone to attend the church, and whether or not they attend, you will still feel blessed by God. I can tell you by experience that this is absolutely true.

This morning we are providing for you a packet of 5 invite cards to share with people this month. On the front of the card is our church info, and on the back of the card is a website address:

Godworthloving.com This website answers several questions people have about God and religion, so even if they aren't interested in attending church at this time, they might be interested in reading the information on the site and read about God's plan of salvation.

Let me encourage you to try inviting someone. Pray that God will give you the opportunity and the boldness to say: “Do you attend church anywhere?” and if they say no, share the card with them and invite them to attend one of our Sunday services. If they are not interested at the moment, just encourage them to look at the website on the back of the card. God can do something great if you will give it a try.

Blessings,

PASTOR RALPH
